Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Swimmin Pools, a Romance in One Act for Male: Characters Only The scene of this little romance is laid on a section of dumping ground outside the city limits of a small town in the middle west. The action takes place about nine o'clock on a moonlight night towards the end of May. All this, as you will at once perceive, is most convenient. No scenery is really necessary. Any platform or vacant space can be made to suggest a dumping ground by the addition of a little judiciously selected junk - an old barrel, a few boxes, cans, bottles, etc., etc. Of course, if you can get hold of a Christmas tree out of some one's back yard and set it up anywhere at the rear of the stage, so much the better. It will cast a nice shadow, provided you arrange your moonlight carefully, hi fact, the whole success of your setting depends on your luck with the lights. The back of the stage should be almost dark, with just a suggestion of moonlight; and the foreground, where the action takes place, lighted only by the hobos fire. (Put your curtain up to soft music - remember, this is a romance. The audience should, at first, be able to distinguish little more than the faces - particularly the faces - of the two hobos, Nut and English, sitting by their fire, down C. Build a good fire - plenty of wood around at least three or four red globes that will throw a strong, warm glow over the foreground. There should be a few moments sience before the Nut speaks.) Nut...
