

A Trip to Portland With a Descriptive View of the Harbor, Islands and Scenery from the Observatory on Munjoy Hill

---

By Joshua A. Carnes

General Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 24 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.1in. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1858 Excerpt: . . . CHAPTER VI. The Ocean House and its proprietor--Richmond Island--The Atlantic House. The gentlemanly proprietor of the Ocean House having made his appearance, and soon becoming familiar after stating to him the object of my visit, and introducing me to his lady and the other members of his interesting family, there being no boarders at the hotel at the time, I soon found myself domiciliated as one of the family, and therefore felt perfectly at home. On rambling round the premises of this delightful and salubrious retreat from the noise and bustle of the city, I thought a fine opportunity presented itself for observation and for desultory descriptions of whatever came under my observation during my stay. Joseph P. Chamberlin, Esq. , the proprietor, being a gentleman of intelligence, communicative, and perfectly willing to impart for the information of others whatever might serve to interest them,...

READ ONLINE
[ 7.32 MB ]

Reviews

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You wont feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).

-- Prof. Kirk Cruickshank DDS

This kind of book is every little thing and taught me to looking ahead of time and a lot more. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. I found out this book from my dad and i encouraged this pdf to find out.

-- Justus Hettinger