A topic which has aroused much interest, and upon which special lectures have been given by Dr. Lily Owen Burbank, is Social Hygiene as a Public Health Problem. These lectures have been exceptionally well attended. The exhibit schedule planned for the fall of 1918 was postponed because of the influenza epidemic, and was not resumed until January, 1919. From January to June, a period of about five months, programs were carried out in Amesbury, Attleboro, Belchertown, Belmont, Canton, Deerfield, Easthampton, Franklin, Haverhill, Ipswich, North Attleborough, Southampton, South Deerfield and Taunton.
