Excerpt: . . . ward to raise a fund to stand in lieu of the real estate for the future use of the ward, or of any other person who would have been entitled to the real estate, it is deemed a separate trust, for the due execution of which a separate bond is required. 2673. Oath before sale. Every guardian, whether appointed in this state or elsewhere, when licensed to sell real estate, is required, before making the sale, to take and subscribe an oath like that required in case of an executor or administrator; and notice will be given, and the proceedings will be conducted in like manner as is prescribed in the case of a sale made by an executor or administrator, and the evidence of giving such notice may be perpetuated in the same manner. 2674. Essential that the oath be taken before making sale. It is essential to the validity of a guardians sale that the guardians oath should be taken before making the sale. If the record fails to show that he took the oath before sale it has been held that the sale is invalid. 2675. Death of guardian after confirmation, new guardian not required to take the oath. When a guardian has made a sale, reported it to the court, and has been confirmed and he directed to complete the transaction by giving a deed and receiving the purchase price, and then dies and a new guardian is appointed to...
