A357 2009a OCLC Number: (OCoLC)551765015 Subject: Agricultural laws and legislation -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 Information Act. First, the farm bill directed AMS to consider a national research and promotion program for honey packers and importers. AMS received a proposal for this packers and importers program and conducted a referendum on that pro-posal from April 2 - 16, 2008. In the referendum, 78 percent of those voting, representing 92 percent of the volume of those voting in the referendum, approved the program. The program become effective on May 22, 2008, 1 day after the final rule was published in the Federal Register. The first board meeting took place on September 4, 2008. With the approval of this new program, the collection of assessments under the Honey Research, Promotion and Consumer Information Order - authorized under the Honey Research, Promotion and Consumer Information Act - was suspended. A termination order for that program was published in the Federal Register on April 17, 2009. The second major requirement under Sec. 10401 directed USDA to consider establishing a research and promotion program for domestic producers. On July 14, 2009, AMS published a proposed rule and solicited comments through September 14, 2009 for a domestic honey producer program. AMS is currently reviewing those comments. If it is determined that a program is warranted, AMS will publish a rule and hold a referendum. A final rule will be published if the program is approved in the referendum. The second farm bill honey provision, Sec. 10402, provided country of origin labeling requirements for honey that bears any official certificate of quality, grade mark or...
