You, Your Child and "Special" Education: A Guide to Dealing with the System, Revised Edition

By Barbara Coyne Cutler with Sue Pratt. Forewords by Rosemary and Gunnar Dybwad, and Paula Goldberg

Paul H. Brookes Publishing Co., 2010. Softcover. Book Condition: New. Overwhelmed and intimidated: That's how many parents feel when they're dealing with the complex special education system. How can they transform themselves into confident, knowledgeable advocates and get their children the free appropriate public education they're entitled to? Give them the answers with this empowering survival guide, the book with the straight talk parents want and the encouragement they need as they work to get the best services for their child. A comprehensive update of a resource parents have relied on for more than 17 years, this no-nonsense guide cuts right through the myths and obstacles that block the way to better education for a child with special needs. Veteran advocacy expert Barbara Cutler directly addresses parents with empathy and candor, drawing on 30 years of professional expertise and her deep personal insight as the mother of a son with autism. Share this book with parents and they'll have the step-by-step, real-world guidance they need to . proactively participate in IEP meetings to secure more and better services for their child . develop productive assertiveness that gets real results . arrange, prepare for, and conduct a classroom observation . recognize...
